

FAMILY VIOLENCE PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE WORKING WITH PEOPLE WHO USE VIOLENCE

2026 training dates:

- Friday 23rd October, 2026 from 9.30am-1.30pm
- Friday 20th November, 2026 from 9.30am-1.30pm

Practitioners across all sectors play a vital role in disrupting narratives that excuse, minimise, or justify the use of family violence.

The module will be delivered by two experienced family violence specialist practitioners from Meli.

This will be an in-person event at 9b Strong St, South Geelong (Meli's Men's Family Violence Intervention Centre).

Are you a practitioner working with adults who use family violence?

This session will cover:

- identifying when a client is inviting you to collude in their violence narrative
- how to engage in accountable conversations with people who use family violence
- how to resist collusion in your practice

Join us for this FREE professional development opportunity!

To register interest to attend either Oct or Nov session, please complete this form Non-Collusive Practice \(Family Violence\) Training - Expression of Interest – Fill out form

Questions?

Please email

Elaine.Williams@meli.org.au